

Wrecking Ball

Well I believe in the things you tell me
Cause I believe in the thing you are
But you lied when you said you'd lift me
Up to the stars
Sometimes I feel like a stone
Under the weight of a heavy wall
I think I'm gonna knock it down like a wrecking ball

Well, it's clear that you have your reasons
But I'll be damned if I know what they are
You went and built your city high
Upon this shaky ground
Sometimes I feel like a stone
Under the weight of a heavy wall
I think I'm gonna knock it down like a wrecking ball

In front of me there's a sign, a former neon light
It says you don't get off if you don't get on
That's why I say
Sometimes I feel like a stone
Under the weight of a heavy wall
I think I'm gonna knock it down like a wrecking ball

In front of me there's a sign, a former neon light
It says you don't get off if you don't get on
That's why I say
Sometimes I feel like a stone
Under the weight of a heavy wall
I think I'm gonna knock it down like a wrecking ball
